Explanation of RARF Awards Categories

Outstanding Academic Achievement Academic excellence

Children and young people achieving consistently outstanding outcomes in a learning environment. The nominee may demonstrate particular talents or abilities in a specific area of academic or creative activity or across a broad spectrum of subject areas.

Improved Academic Achievement

The nominee will have shown considerable improvement in their standard of work and achievement over a period of time in a learning environment. This may be demonstrated through one or more of the following:

Improved attendance

Devoting increased time for coursework and/or revision

Recognising weakness in any subjects or study skills and seeking and utilising appropriate help and support

Sustained commitment to study to ensure progress was achievable

Outstanding Citizenship Achievement

Being a good citizen means being willing to work hard and help others, being responsible; e.g. being a young carer or peer mentor, being respectful and helping others in the community. Being a good citizen means being of service to one's own family, friends and community group.

The nominee will demonstrate involvement in services to their personal or wider community and sustained social responsibility.

Outstanding Sporting Achievement

This nominee will have achieved significant success on an amateur and/or professional local, county or national level in a sporting activity. A list of Sport England recognised sporting activities is included here as guidance: <https://www.sportengland.org/media/10266/uk-recognised-ngbs-and-sport-list-april-2016.pdf>. This list is not exhaustive, however, and the Roy Anthony Reid Foundation will consider outstanding achievement in alternative sporting activities that demonstrate a sustained commitment to improving physical ability.

Outstanding Creative Ability

Creativity is about expression. Creativity involves being imaginative and original. Creativity is the ability to challenge, question and explore. It involves taking risks, playing with ideas, keeping an open mind and making connections.

The outcome of creativity is of value - it can provide enjoyment to the creator or to others.

The nominee will demonstrate outstanding creative ability through either of/a combination of the mediums of music, drama, art, craft, dance or writing.

Personal Development and Growth

While we are aware that all people undergo personal development tasks as a matter of course, this award acknowledges that some individuals have had to overcome significant personal challenges and adversity in their lives in order to attain a sense of purpose, self-confidence and belonging.

The nominee will demonstrate that he or she has developed skills in one or more of the following:

- Developed a sense of purpose, strengths, talents and interests
- Aimed for and strived to achieve through hard work and a desire to learn
- Developed increased self confidence, self respect and respect for others over time
- Demonstrated exceptional empathetic skills – understanding the needs of others
- Developed better communication skills
- Seeking opportunities to aid personal development e.g. attending college, training courses, etc.
